CATNIP

DR. J. H. DOCKHAM

NEPETA CATARIA, or catnip, as it is more commonly known, was named from the little town, Nepet, in Tuscany. It was introduced into this country at an early date, as an ornamental plant for the garden, but later it was classed among the troublesome weeds.

It is a hardy perennial, propagated by seeds, and blooms from June to September. It has a wide range and is usually to be found in sandy soil, in neglected farmyards, strips of land beside roadways, and in waste places.

Its leaves are heart-shaped at the base, and it has whorls of blossoms crowded into dense spikes, blue or purplish in color. The leaves and blossoms are collected and dried for medicinal purposes.

Catnip, or cat mint as it is sometimes called, is a great favorite among cats. It has a strong aromatic odor and has derived its common name from the fact that cats are attracted by this odor which excites them to the most curious demonstrations. They not only eat it, but roll on it and evince the utmost joy and affection in its presence.

The larger animals of the feline family, lions and tigers, act in a similar manner in the presence of catnip, and considerable excitement may be caused in the zoo by introducing it into their cages.

I have been asked several times why we give catnip to our cats. Most of us give it to them, I suppose, because we know that they are fond of it, that they play and become more active when they have it.

As exercisers, the catnip ball and the catnip mouse are an assured success whenever produced, and the sleepest, laziest old neuter will arouse and deport himself like a kitten when given either of them to play with.

However, catnip has long been recognized for its medicinal qualities. Our grandmothers gave it to our mothers and perhaps to us when babyhood ills threatened us. Catnip tea, piping hot, for colds, and especially those on the chest, was a favorite remedy in the good old days of bone-set tea. It acts as a diuretic, stimulating the flow of urine; as a diaphoretic, stimulating the sweat glands, and as an aphrodisiac, stimulating the sexual organs.

I have given catnip tea to my cats when the urine has been scanty or retained too long, preferring it to sweet spirits of nitre, and have found it most satisfactory in its results. I have given it when a cold was in its early stages, or when a cat seemed dozey and not up to her usual spirits. At other times I have given it because it made them play and exercise.

It is great fun to watch a backyard full of battle-scarred old veterans of many an alley encounter busy with a little catnip bed. Enemies at sight, under normal conditions, may be seen in an almost inebriated condition, from the tonic effect of the catnip—washing each other's faces, and exhibiting the most ludicrous manifestations of glee, and demonstrating to all who may be looking on that catnip surely is meant to be given to cats, to help break down the lines of caste, to loosen the tension, and to make a perfect ending to a perfect day.

Correspondence

Editor Cat Review:

I expected to come to New York for some of the cat shows, but Blue Devil was sick, so I had to stay at home and doctor a sick cat. She had gastritis, and was sick for a week.

Every time she went to her pan she vomited. I had done everything for her that I knew of and had used with other cats with gastritis successfully, but this one did not respond to the treatment, so I called my veterinary, and he said to give three drops of elixir of catnip and fennel every hour for three or four doses. I did this, and the next morning she was better. During this day I gave five doses, and by that time she was quite like herself again. It certainly worked wonders for her. She is one of Swift Lightning's kittens, and the only blue I have, so I would have hated to lose her.

I sold a male kitten from Swift Lightning to a lady here in town. He is a smoke, and before he was eight months old he weighed ten and a-half pounds, and at nine months eleven and a-half pounds.

Yours truly,

(Mrs) C. C. Crumm.

Binghamton, N. Y.

Editor Cat Review:

Please find one dollar for the Review for 1924. You are doing a grand act of kindness for our friends of the cat family.

The Cat Review is a paper that every cat lover should have in his home. I always preach kindness to cats. I am a Spanish-American soldier, and always carry packages of catnip to give to my friends.

Yours truly,

E. G. Stockberger.

Milwaukee, Wis., December 31, 1923.

Editor Cat Review:

I use marsh hay in the boxes that my cats sleep in, changing it every week. I find that some make themselves round beds in the box and others make a little "house" where they may retire from sight. The coats do not knot so much where marsh hay is used as they do when the cats sleep on cushions.

EDITORIALS

HERE seems to be more cause for complaint, in the judging and management of some of the shows this year, than usual, and we hoped that there would be less. We are speaking of the whole country, not of any one district.

We are told that there always will be these troubles; that they are even worse in the dog clubs than with us, etc., etc.; but we cannot quite agree with the statement, that there will always be troubles and dishonesty, and we know that some clubs are quite free from them.

There is a great deal in leadership, and those clubs, with presidents that simply will not have either crooked proceedings, nor laxness in keeping rules and yet are pleasant instead of stern and harsh, are bright spots in the fancy. They show us that it is possible to have things right.

But we must all do our part: uphold the good presidents or work to get one, if the one we have is not what he ought to be. Be perfectly square, and have nothing to do with what is not in the right line.

It may seem strange to some for us to write in this dictatorial way, but we have heard of more than one club lately where things are in a really rotten condition; there are some good members in each, but they have no power. They are so far outnumbered that they seem to have no influence at all. They stay in the clubs because they need to show their cats, and to have them judged—but some have found that they were not really judged. The awards were given to favorites, or where there was something to be gained.

These conditions will not be improved if they are tolerated. It would be better to leave the clubs if there are not enough right-minded ones to force the others into better ways. In time the best people might be able to form a club of their own. It is too much to submit to injustice and to be ridden over by unprincipled people.

We know of one club that was running down rapidly. A few of the best people resigned, but they talked, and a few within the club talked. A really fine woman, and tactful, was chosen for president. Most of those who resigned have come back, and the meetings and shows are delightful. Occasionally there is an unsatisfactory judge or manager, but the same mistake is not repeated, and good feeling continues.

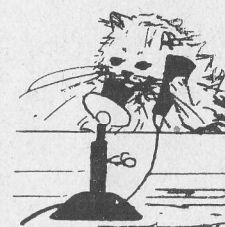

This can be done in other clubs if it is wanted enough.

FROM the sixth of April until the twelfth is "Be Kind to Animals Week." We hope that all will make it a point to take part in spreading the news in such a way as to help in making kindness not only popular, but a deep-down, fundamental characteristic of Americans. Perhaps some of us can take a much more active part than this.

NEWS

Dr. S. H. Swain, of Decatur, Ill., has been making good sales of red tabbies and has also been successful in the shows.

We have received a newspaper clipping about the Indiana Persian Cat Club, sent by a correspondent in a different state. May the club prosper and become truly famous!

Mrs. George W. Dobbin, of Baltimore, Md., has just added Miss Kroeh's Kilravock Corleone to her cattery. Also a six months old daughter of Mrs. Farrar's Rounton Dean Hart, which is to be named Rounton Aroon.

Mrs. E. J. Stearns, who bought a white male from Pincroft Place some time ago, is so pleased with him that she has come back again, this time adding to her kennels a fine blue male with real copper eyes, and possibly a bred matron. Mrs. Stearns wishes to begin right with color and linebred stock.

At the Vancouver Show, three cats finished their points for championship, namely: Ala Baba Rex, blue eyed white male, owned by L. R. Renwick; Viko Zan, shaded silver male, owned by Mrs. J. Oken, of Seattle; and Chummie O'Neil, black female, owned by Mrs. M. I. Shepherd. Mrs. Oken's champion, Mitzie Dyke, also finished her second championship.

Miss Elsie J. Bailey, of the Dresden Cattery, has purchased the lovely blue eyed, sound hearing white stud, Kilravock Ivory II, from Miss J. R. Kroeh.

"Dear old Flurry," Mrs. H. L. West's pet, and for the last few months Dr. Lock's of Washington, D. C., was known to many and loved by many. The doctor says that her passing must have been very peaceful and painless, for she was lying just as if she were asleep.

Dr. J. H. Dockham, of Chicago, announces the sale of Moon-Ide Blackburn to Mrs. Gill, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Moon-Ide Soubrette to Mr. R. C. Colcord, of Arlington, Fla.; Moon-Ide Moon Magic to Mrs. Marshall, of Watertown, Mass.; a black male to Mrs. Larned, of Rhode Island, and a black female to Miss Winter, of Watertown, Mass.

BRITISH COLUMBIA CAT CLUB

At the annual meeting of the club, held on the 15th ultimo, in Vancouver, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. E. S. Chambers; 1st vice-president, Mrs. M. L. Beney; 2nd vice-president, Miss Emma Grimm; secretary, Mrs. J. W. Pike; treasurer, Mr. B. O. Oughton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. L. B. Murray. Directors: Mrs. Frank McKay-Begg, Mrs. E. L. Perry, Mr. James McCaughran. Director to Vancouver Exhibition Association, Mrs. J. W. Pike.

We are looking forward to a very prosperous year, and we have certainly made good progress in the past twelve months, for, from a membership of about thirty at the start of 1923 we now have a membership of over sixty.

BERESFORD CAT CLUB OF AMERICA

The Beresford Club met at the Lexington Hotel parlors, Chicago, for their usual monthly meeting. Luncheon preceded, and then the members settled down to transact the business of the month and to formulate plans for our coming show next winter, which, we hope, will be larger and better than ever. We are also making plans to celebrate our twenty-fifth anniversary by a banquet to be held at the Hotel Sherman. This was to have been held in March last, but owing to the severe illness of several of our most valued members it was decided to postpone the event until May. The club has decided, with regret, to abandon the Lexington as their headquarters and to meet hereafter in a place more central for all.

A. F. O'Brien, Recording Sec.

EMPIRE CAT CLUB

The regular meeting of the Empire Cat Club was held at the Hearthstone Tea Room, New York City, March 1st, with our new president, Mr. Archie E. Horne, in the chair. We feel highly honored to have so capable a gentleman as Mr. Horne for our president, and are very glad to still have our former president, Mrs. I. J. Ketchen, as our vice-president. We are looking forward to a very successful 1924.

Eight new members were elected. Six members were present. We regret to say that our notices were delayed, and did not reach the other members on time.

New by-laws were discussed. A kitten auction was suggested, to be auctioned at an evening entertainment given at the Hearthstone Tea Room, New York City, date to be decided later.

Lunch was served by our amiable hostess, Mrs. Simson, and a pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. James E. Chester, Secretary.

INDIANA PERSIAN CAT CLUB

The Indiana Persian Cat Club was organized in Indianapolis on February 26th with twenty-six charter members. The club is to be affiliated with the American Cat Association. The following officers were elected for the first year: President, Mrs. H. B. McNeely; vice-president, Mrs. Mark Adams; treasurer, Mrs. Harry Pegg; secretary, Mrs. D. H. Alden, 1342 Burdsal Parkway. The Board of Directors consists of Mrs. Sargent, Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Herbster, Mrs. Summers, Mrs. Addison and Mr. C. L. Webb. This club is organized to promote good feeling among cat breeders and exhibitors, and to cultivate good sportsmanship. Meetings will be held the last Tuesday of each month.

Mrs. D. H. Alden, Secretary.

CLEVELAND PERSIAN SOCIETY

The annual meeting of the Cleveland Persian Society was held at the home of the secretary, Miss Ray, January 4th, twenty-five members being present. The president, Mrs. Paine, conducted the meeting, and after the regular business the following were elected to serve for the new year: President, Mrs. W. E. Duffy; 1st vice-president, Mrs. I. Crutch; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. A. Simpson; 3rd vice-president, Mrs. C. Maxon; treasurer, Mrs. Minerva Johnson; secretary, Miss Anna M. Ray.

The Cleveland Persian Society wishes to thank all member clubs for the use of the club trophies for our last show, also for all the individual cups and trophies. This is a great help to the out of town exhibitors.

At the show held December 12, 13, 14, 1923, the club gave out $286 in prize money, beside a number of one win trophies. We are very proud of this, as we did not solicit outside help. The money was made by club members giving parties, afternoon teas, apron sales, sales of baked goods, dark horses at the meetings, carpet-rags furnished by the members, woven by the blind. These were sold, helping two causes. All members pay twenty-five cents for each litter of kittens born. This amounts to a good sum during the year.

Along with all this the society has been helping the Cleveland Animal Protective League. We have been able to furnish them with enough money so that a room for sick and stray cats has been provided in the new building.

The club is planning bigger and better things for the new year, and plans are on the way for a hotel show next winter.

On Saturday evening, February 16th, Mrs. Crutch gave a valentine party at her lovely home. Cards, valentines and a radio concert furnished amusement for the members and friends.

February 7th eighteen members attended the meeting held with Mrs. A. Herbert. The following club cups were lifted this year: The Cleveland Persian Society Cup for the Best Cat in show, won by Laird of Rusholme, owner, Mrs. McKilliam; The Cinders Cup, for the Best Black Male, won by Ch. Nigger Baby, owner, Mrs. T. R. Dowling; the Ch. Vandella Fifth Trophy, won by Mrs. M. Halm, for the Best Blue-eyed White Cat. New cups will be furnished during the year.

Anna M. Ray, secretary.

ROYAL CANADIAN CAT CLUB, TORONTO, CANADA

The regular meeting of the Royal Canadian Cat Club was held at the home of Miss Menzies, Toronto, on March 14th, with Mrs. Henderson, the president of the club, in the chair.

A vote of thanks and appreciation was tendered Miss Elsie Adamson and Miss Menzies for the delightful musicale held in February at Miss Adamson's pretty studio, which was exquisite with flowers and softly shaded lights. This event greatly augmented the funds of the club.

Arrangements are being made by Miss Menzies to further increase the revenue of the club by holding a large bridge party at her home. We are deeply appreciative of the energy and enthusiasm of the members.

The following members comprise the Exhibition Committee: Miss Menzies, Miss Elliot, Mrs. Stanley Smith, Miss Adamson and Mrs. Leslie, and the interested efforts of this efficient committee should do much to further the success of the coming show. Other preliminary activities relative to the multiplicity of details in connection with the show were arranged.

A donation was arranged to be sent to the Humane Society.

"Saxby," the beautiful cream who carried off the honors as best kitten at the last show was an interested guest for a short time, and has grown into an exceptionally handsome specimen.

After a pleasant chat over the tea-cups the meeting adjourned.

B. C. Marwood, Cor. Secretary.
